EMPOWERING PEOPLE • STRENGTHENING ORGANIZATIONS

The Chicago Training Choice!

The H.G. Jones Institute offers trainers and participants – and their organizations – state-of-art–training facilities – from a forty-person training lab, mobile work stations, and professional board room for groups of ten, complete with phone, print, and network capabilities.

From intimate team meetings to classroom-style training sessions, the H.G. Jones Institute makes your group's comfort its focus. From its quiet setting and easily adjusted workspaces to ergonomically designed chairs, LCD projectors with drop down ceiling lifts, surround sound speaker system, micro shades, light dimmers, wireless access and other audio visual support.

Located in the heart of Chicago's theatre district, directly across the street from the famous Merchandise Mart on the Chicago River, the H.G. Jones Institute is easily accessible by public and private transportation and is in walking distance to fine shops, hotels, and restaurants.
